Callous thieves steal from victims of flood

HEARTBROKEN flood victims have been dealt a double blow after thieves plundered the homes they were forced to abandon.

Essex police have received reports that several homes at Steeple Bumpstead – which were flooded in mid-June – had been broken into.

Residents who had moved out into rented accommodation while repair work was carried out on their flood-damaged homes have now discovered that property, including jewellery, medals, paintings, a clock and a lawnmower, have been stolen.

Investigations into the burglaries began after one resident in Helions Road returned to his home on Monday to check on progress and discovered it had been broken into and property had been taken.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A police spokesman said: "Police are investigating a series of burglaries at houses in Steeple Bumpstead where owners have been forced to live in alternative accommodation following flood damage caused in June.

"Officers were first contact on Monday by one resident who lived in Helions Road and returned to inspect the progress of the clean up operation while he had been living in rented accommodation.

"As a result, other neighbours have also discovered that their homes have been broken into. Detectives are still compiling a list of the property that has been taken."

It is believed that the burglaries took place between late evening on Sunday and 7am on Monday.

Anthony Fuff, who with his wife and their two young children were forced to move out of the village into rented accommodation a month ago, said they have had a lawn-mower and a chain saw taken and were still checking if anything else was missing.

He said: "We were comparatively lucky because we had quite a lot of items boxed up in the garage, so they did not actually break into our house, they went on to the next one.

"It is disgusting really. You don't expect burglars to have a great conscience, but to hit people when they are down like this and going through a difficulty and traumatic time, is not nice.

"You are constantly stressed anyway and the last thing you need is someone rummaging through your house and taking some of your few remaining personal effects."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Braintree Police on (01376) 551312 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Big day out for families

CROWDS flocked to the annual Haverhill Show on Sunday for a day of entertainment from dancers, police dogs and karate experts.

Organisers are hoping that a healthy profit will result for LAMPH, the Haverhill-based group for children and adults with disabilities, from the event, organised in association with the Weekly News and held on the recreation ground.

The show opened with a service on the bandstand led by Haverhill Methodist Church, with displays in the main area from Collete's Entertainment School, Dells School of Dance, Lisa Mason Ballet School and Mary Deville School of Dance, as well as Wado Karate and Haverhill Motorcycle Club.

There was a bumper turnout for the Baby Show, sponsored by Samuels, with 87 babies taking part. The overall winner was 14-month-old Aimee Bayford. Other winners were: up to six months – 1. Cassie Gilbert (six weeks old), 2. Macy Fitzpatrick, 3. Gracie-Mea Alexander; six months to one year – 1. Grace Moody, 2. Isabell Silvain, 3.

Marshall Ellis; one year-18 months – 1. Aimee Bayford, 2. Ashley George-Miller, 3. Diogo Brito; 18-24 months – 1. Kyan Ma, 2. Shane Storrie, 3. George Cliffton.

First-prize winners received portraits from The Gallery. Party Crazy, Shoe Box and Extremes also showed their support for the event.

Shirley Stephens, of Water Hall Kennels, ran the dog show, and two bicycles donated by Chapmans were raffled and raised £200.

Carol Sloane, of the organising committee, said: "We were very pleased with the way things went. There were big crowds around the area and the baby show numbers were definitely up this year. "The weather was just right and we hope to have raised more money for LAMPH than in previous years."

Saturday of the month, then next year on the first Saturday each month.

Jobs go as firm closes

HAVERHILL has been rocked by more redundancies with the closure of the Truck-Lite factory.

More than 100 workers are believed to have lost jobs at the Rookwood Way plant which had been owned by Flexible Lamps until it was bought by Truck-Lite last year.

The latest blow to the town brings the total job losses to more than 500 in just 18 months.

Around 300 people lost their jobs when Work-space Office Solutions went out of business in March. Grampian laid off around 80 meat processing workers, and Glenfield Textile Services laundry service closed with the loss of nearly 50 jobs.

Staff at Flexible Lamps, which made LED and incandescent lighting, were given notice their jobs could be going last December, and were warned of a 90-day consultation period.

It appears the decision has now been taken but the company declined to give more details.

Gordon Mussett, Haverhill town clerk, said: "We regret the loss of any employment in the town and it is always disappointing to lose long-established businesses. Any loss is distressing."

But he said new job opportunities are being created in Haverhill.

Nigel Aitkens, St Edmundsbury Borough Council member and vice-chairman of the Haverhill Area Working Party, also sounded a positive note saying Haverhill had a skilled workforce that was attractive to potential employers.

He said: "If you look at the record of the workforce in Haverhill it is second to none. Haverhill's industrial group has always been very positive and welcoming to new businesses."

Flexible Lamps was founded in 1924 and had three manufacturing and distribution facilities in Haverhill, Harlow and France. It employed 600 people across the three sites.

Bard blasts into outer space

ROCK and roll music will reverberate as pupils give an evening performance of a space-age show based on Shakespeare's The Tempest. Pupils at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College will tread the boards again for the first show in around 10 years. The musical Return to the Forbidden Planet, a mix of classic literature and rock and roll, is set in outer space and features song and dance from the 50s through to the 70s including Great Balls of Fire and Born to be Wild. The school's music teacher Ryan Lester and drama teacher Steve Powter have joined forces to work with pupils on the production. It will be staged in the main hall, which has recently had a £30,000 refurbishment, at 7pm on Wednesday July 18, and Thursday, July 19. Tickets are available by ringing Tracy North on (01440) 705 501 ext 223.

Brother heard fatal car crash on mobile

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A YOUNG man died in a horror crash while chatting to his brother on a mobile phone.

Matthew Sheridan's brother sat helpless, thousands of miles away, listening to the horrific last moments of his sibling's life.

Matthew, 22, and the car driver Charles Bevan, 20, both from Clare, were killed in the crash at Stoke Road, Clare, last November.

An inquest at Bury St Edmunds on Tuesday heard the two men had been at a wake at the Globe pub in Clare after the funeral of a family member.

Charles Bevan had borrowed a Nissan roadster convertible from his cousin Jamie Willsdon to go to a cash point for some money and Matthew Sheridan had accompanied him as a passenger in the car.

The inquest heard a statement from Jonathan Sheridan, 24, who had been at Sidney airport when he received a mobile phone call from his brother Matthew.

Coroner Dr Peter Dean told the inquest: "Jonathan heard his brother call out to Charlie, saying that he had nearly reversed into another car while he was at the cash point.

"They had a general conversation for another two minutes, then he heard his brother utter a brief expletive, heard a loud noise and then complete silence."

Dr Peter Dean, Greater Suffolk Coroner, recorded a verdict of accidental death on both men and said he believed alcohol had contributed to the tragic accident that had claimed their lives.

Charles was described by his family as "a very friendly and lovable young man". Matthew's family said he was "friendly, considerate and fun-loving".

Tests showed both men had been over the drink-driving limit. Charles had a reading of 106 mg of alcohol compared with the legal limit of 80.

Neither had worn a seatbelt and they were both thrown from the car, receiving serious head injuries.

Police accident investigator Pc Jeffrey Cribb said: "The effect of alcohol reduces concentration, perception of speed and levels of risk.

"It is highly likely that the vehicle was being driven at excessive speed and coming out of the left hand bend the driver lost control, mounted the verge and began to roll."

A statement was read from Keith Brown who was driving home along Stoke Road on the night of the accident, when he saw a blue "sporty type" car coming in the opposite direction at a speed he estimated between 70 and 80 mph.

Dr Dean said: "Again, sadly, we hear of the dangers of driving when the alcohol level is raised and the very tragic circumstances which took the lives of these two young friends that night.

"We have heard something of their characters and they were obviously very highly thought of by those who knew them."

Cameras used to catch doorstep conmen

HIDDEN cameras are being used by police to combat the menace of bogus callers.

Police in west Suffolk have a number of cameras which they are installing in the homes of vulnerable people, including previous victims of bogus callers.

Police are hoping the cameras will give them a clear picture of the thieves in action, which could provide valuable evidence in any future prosecution.

Det Chief Insp Stuart Hudson said: "We have seen increases in this type of offence and it is appropriate to warn the public to be aware of such incidents and give guidance on how to deal with an unexpected caller."

Police have emphasised that householders, particularly the elderly, should always make sure doors are locked and call 999 if they are worried about the identity of a visitor.

Mr Hudson appealed to neighbours of vulnerable people to be on the lookout for suspicious callers.

Trek trip for out and about Scouts

AN INTREPID group of Explorer Scouts and their leaders will attempt to walk the 96km Stour Valley Path within 48 hours.

The challenge will start at 8pm on Friday, July 20, and they hope to complete it by 8pm on Sunday, July 22.

The Scouts, including some from Clare, are working hard to raise sponsorship for their walk, to enable them to offer hospitality to Zimbabwean Scouts following the World Scout Jamboree in Essex.

Alan Fairweather, a sprightly 75 year old, will be one of the walk leaders. Alan has many years of Scouting experience both in Britain and Zimbabwe.

He said: "We are doing this because of my close association with Scouting in Zimbabwe: I was a Scout leader there for many years before retiring to the UK in 2003."

Park ready to fly the flag for town

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

HAVERHILL's East Town Park is to receive Green Flag status soon as a survey shows that St Edmundsbury's parks are among the most valued open spaces in the country.

The Park Life Report, the first ever public satisfaction survey of Britain's parks and green spaces, was published to celebrate Parks Week.

The report found that, nationally, 68 percent of people who took part in their survey were either satisfied or very satisfied with their parks and spaces. Research undertaken by St Edmundsbury Borough Council in 2006/07 found that the satisfaction level of borough residents was 82 percent, up two percent on the previous survey.

Coun Lynsey Alexander, portfolio holder for culture said: "Parks and open spaces contribute immeasurably to wellbeing and the council is committed to making sure that everyone can enjoy year-round fresh air and space outside.

"Our parks service has won global acclaim but knowing that residents think highly of the service is even more important to us."

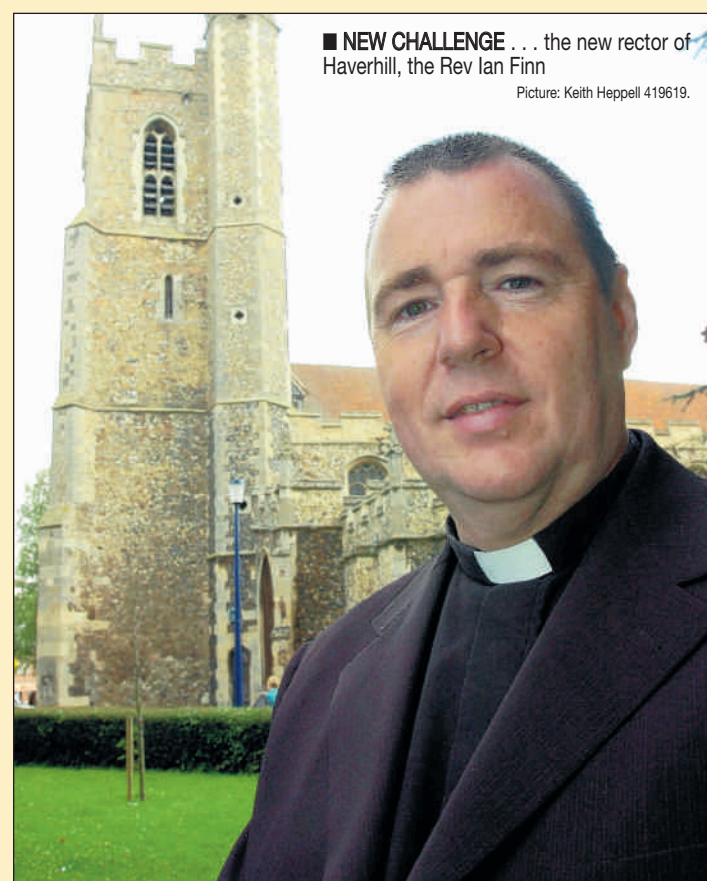

East Town Park in Haverhill should receive Green Flag status shortly, following the award being given to Nowton Park, Bury St Edmunds last year.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council owns 335 hectares of parks and open spaces and more than 30 hectares of woodland and wildlife nature reserves. The council has three country parks at Nowton in Bury St Edmunds, in nearby West Stow, and East Town Park, in Haverhill.

It also has 46 formal parks and recreation grounds, 10 allotments, two cemeteries and other amenity space.

Rector answers local call

THE new Rector of Haverhill, the Rev Ian Finn, has travelled just a few miles up the road from his previous post at Wickhambrook to take up the appointment. Mr Finn, who moved to the town a month ago, is the new rector of St Mary's Church, Haverhill and Withersfield, as well as Rural Dean to the surrounding parishes. His predecessor Edmund Betts left the parish last October and Mr Finn said he got a warm welcome at his service of induction by the Bishop of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich, the Rt Rev Richard Lewis. Mr Finn, 49, moved to Haverhill after serving eight years as vicar of the Bansfield Benefice and a total of 24 years as a priest. He and his wife Angela, who is headteacher at a Newmarket first school, have seven children, aged from 27 years downwards, with only the youngest still living at home. Mr Finn said: "I just felt a calling to come here, that it would be the right place for me. I felt ready for a new challenge and we are looking forward to it. "We are settling in well and getting to know people. We have received a very warm welcome here and I already have meetings planned with the other churches."

Missing Tarka the cat appeal

A SEVERELY disabled man is heartbroken that the pet cat which is his constant companion has gone missing from home.

Tarka, a neutered blue tabby-point Birman cat, pictured right, disappeared from his home in Howe Road, Haverhill, last Thursday morning and has not been seen since. He is a large cat, white with a grey tabby face, legs and tail.

Owner Eileen Bocock, said her husband Rob was particularly missing the cat.

She said: "My husband is very severely disabled, he has had three strokes.

"Tarka is his cat and he is very upset, it usually sits on his lap all the time. Tarka is a beautiful, very friendly cat and we are willing to pay a reward to get him back."

She added that the animal had never wandered off before in his eight years with the couple.

Mrs Bocock is asking everyone to check their garages and sheds in case Tarka has been shut in.

Anyone who has any information should ring (01440) 705 489.

Police arrest bridge man

POLICE arrested a man after receiving reports of a person threatening to jump off a bridge in Haverhill earlier this week.

Traffic came to a standstill at around 2.30pm on Monday beneath the former railway bridge across Wrattling Road in Haverhill, and police officers went to the scene after members of the public raised concerns about the safety of a man on the bridge.

A Suffolk police spokesman confirmed that a 52-year-old man had been arrested on suspicion of causing a breach of the peace and was questioned at Haverhill Police Station.

A police spokesman said the man was later released without charge and faced no further action regarding the incident.

New scheme gets shoppers mobile

SHOPPERS who have difficulty walking will welcome the launch of a Shopmobility scheme in Haverhill.

A collection of six electric scooters, a powered wheelchair, conventional wheelchair and a walking frame are now available for loan from the council offices in Lower Downs Slade.

The scheme has been set up with £30,000 from St Edmundsbury Borough Council and contributions from Haverhill Town Council and other groups.

Coun Sara Mildmay-White, portfolio holder for community for St Edmundsbury Borough Council, and Coun Les Ager, Haverhill deputy town mayor, held the official launch on Monday.

The Three Counties Transport group will run the scheme with the help of volunteers

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

provided by the Haverhill Volunteer Centre.

Coun Mildmay-White said the idea of Shopmobility was only put forward last October and she was pleased it had been provided so quickly.

She said: "It must be a record for the council to get things moving so quickly. The one in Bury is used a great deal and I am sure this one will be too."

"I would like to give special thanks to Ann Thomas, who was the instigator of the scheme. Without her drive and commitment it would not have come to fruition."

Coun Ager said: "I wish it every success, it is something I am sure we might all have to use at some time. I am sure it is going to be a roaring success."

Freda Mason, 73, of Keding-ton, who suffers from arthritis in her hip, was the first person to sign up to the new scheme.

She said: "I have one at home, but I live in Kedington, so I cannot get it to Haverhill. Now I can be dropped off and use one of these. They are very easy to drive, you have just got to be careful."

The scheme will operate from 10am to 4pm on Monday to Friday, and cater for special events. There is a £5 annual membership fee, with a £1 fee every time the service is used, or people can just pay £3.50 on each occasion.

Training will be provided and the vehicles are available to anyone who has difficulty walking, whether through disability, pregnancy or injury.

MANORISMS

News from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College

OUR third Advanced Learning Day took place last Thursday, with pupils studying the topic of Parliament. Form groups of Year 9s, 10s and 12s were told about the different roles and responsibilities of the Government, Parliament, the House of Commons and the House of Lords. Pupils also learned about the position of MPs and Lords as well as how new laws are passed. Students watched a video of a debate in the House of Commons and then had the chance to act out a debate themselves.

■ Year 10 business students visited the Greene King brewery in Bury St Edmunds. Seeing the production process helped their understanding of how a business works and proved useful for the pupils' coursework. Greene King staff said how impressed they were with the quality of the business students' work.

■ Year 10 applied business students travelled to the Co-Operative headquarters in Manchester last week to gain skills in different areas of human resources. Pupils attended a variety of workshops run by senior and trainee management. Teachers said the students were the best behaved pupils that they had ever seen on a trip! All students received a headteacher's commendation. ■ Last week all Year 8 students from Parkway Middle School visited Castle Manor to work with art pupils on a project to produce a mosaic which will be placed on Jubilee Walk. The Art Council of Haverhill and St Edmundsbury Council have each given £5000 towards the project. Pupils from Castle Manor, Samuel Ward, Parkway, Chalkstone, Clare and Castle Hill will work on the mosaic until October.

■ The week-long Cangle Primary School performance was a big hit last week. The primary school children put in a lot of hard work throughout the week and performed brilliantly to their peers and to parents and friends. The pupils came to Castle Manor last Monday to rehearse the songs they had been learning before returning to their school in preparation for Friday's performance. Drama teacher Mr Powter visited Cangle all week to help with the performance.

■ Many schools from Haverhill and the surrounding area came together last week for a festival of music for all ages. Castle Manor, Castle Hill, St Felix, Thurlow, Hundon, Kedington and Coupsall were the participating schools in the festival. Acts included African drumming, choirs, string ensemble groups and hand bells. The schools performed songs together and acts from our school's production were also featured. The audience of 250 thoroughly enjoyed themselves. All money raised will go to next year's festival.

SAM'S THE WORD

News from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College

CRUCIAL Crew is at Samuel Ward at the minute. It is an organisation that informs young people about general safety aspects in society such as internet safety and fire awareness. Year 13 volunteered to help out in each of the safety scenarios. All the funds will go towards the end of year trip for the Sixth Form.

■ On July 5, Year 11 had their end of year prom at the Town Hall in Haverhill. Despite the weather, they all had a great time with a crowd supporting them under a sea of umbrellas!

■ On Wednesday, July 4, Year 13 had a biology trip to East Town Park where they analysed the local ecosystems. We hope they gained valuable experience on this trip.

■ On Tuesday there will be Year 8 induction day for middle school pupils moving up to Samuel Ward next year. They will learn about the school and meet various subject teachers for next year.

■ Some Chalkstone pupils have been invited to the school to help make a mosaic which will be placed on Jubilee Walk. They will work with members of the Art Department.

■ An athletics day organised by Mr Mason (PE) was held on July 5. We hope it was successful and everyone had fun.

EIGHT teams competed in a quiz at the July meeting of Kedington Garden Society at the Royal British Legion Hall on Tuesday.

Society chairman Madge Pelling welcomed everyone and introduced question master Candice Danleigh, and scorer Mike Freed.

In a closely-contested evening, the eventual winners were the Latecomers, Tim Jane, Peter and Natalie Forsey, with 148 points.

The interval quiz to identify photographs of national gardens, was won by Bob and Brenda Parkin.

Prizes were presented by the chairman, who also thanked Candice and Mike who compiled the questions, raffle organiser Helen Feely and all those who helped with refreshments.

■ FIFTEEN teams battled it out during an enjoyable quiz night held at the Community Centre on Friday in aid of parish church funds. The event was organised by Rose and Mike Driscoll who acted as question master and scorer.

The winning team, with 180 points, were The Deliverers – the Post Office team of Peter and Mary Upton, Linda and David Stearn, Matthew Upton and Amy Learoyd.

An interval quiz was won by The Optimists and a number of spot prizes were awarded to the first entrants to answer general knowledge questions.

Mike Driscoll thanked everyone for their support, and churchwarden Mary Upton thanked the organisers on behalf of the church.

■ A most enjoyable annual summer lunch in aid of the parish church restoration fund was held at Eastcotts Farm by kind invitation of Eric and Margaret Chapman. The event was organised by members of the restoration committee and friends had prepared an excellent three-course meal.

Some 60 people attended, and were welcomed by the rector, the Rev John Eley, who said grace before leaving for another benefice event and thanked the hosts for the use of the barn facilities. Following the lunch, with bar facilities, the raffle was supervised by Neville Smith, former chairman of the restoration committee, who added his thanks to all for supporting the event.

Haverhill

THE June meeting of the Haverhill and District University of the Third Age was held at the Arts Centre, when chairman Aldine Horrigan welcomed all and spoke about arrangements for the enrolment day in September, as the group does not meet in August.

Precise details will be available at the next meeting on July 24 at the Arts Centre at 10am.

The enrolment day is aimed at providing members with the opportunity for a more personal get-together over a cup of coffee and hopefully to enrol new recruits.

The June News and Views deals in depth with the question of insurance for dogs and children occasionally attending groups, but from now on, any incident involving dogs or children belonging to U3A members will be covered by the group's insurance, but this does not apply to friends and spouses who are not U3A members and are not covered by the group's insurance.

The Church Crawlers group met in Swaffham Prior in June and plan to visit St Edmundsbury Cathedral on July 25 at 10.30am for a guided tour. This will cost £3.50 and last approximately one hour. The refectory provides lunches and will reserve tables for the party. The next bridge break holiday will take place next May, 2008. It will be in Majorca at the Hotel Ponent Playa, at Calla Ferrera, for 14 days starting on May 12. The cost at present is £729 per person full board. Excursions will be available. All bridge and non-bridge members are welcome. Single rooms are available but limited. Anyone interested please let the chairman Aldine Horrigan know as soon as possible on 702 497.

Unfortunately the June walk by the Walking, Talking, and Lunching group was marred by rain at Lavenham, but this was put to one side by meeting at the Cock Inn, to talk, munch and drink. This month's meeting on July 16 will start from the Crown Hotel in Linton at 10.30am.

The Gardening Group 11 will meet at Kay Spalding's house on July 17 at 10am when arrangements will be made for a trip to the Abbey Gardens, Bury St Edmunds, including lunch, on August 21.

■ MILK, SUGAR, FLOWERS? . . . Kathy Wood hands over a bouquet to Pat and Derek Yapp.

Picture: David Johnson 417852.

Sparkling celebration for coffee cup couple

A WHIRLWIND romance which has stood the test of time was celebrated in the unusual setting of a supermarket café last week.

Pat and Derek Yapp were presented with a bouquet of flowers, a special table for two set out in their honour and a free lunch at the Haverhill Sainsbury's comfy café on their Diamond Wedding anniversary.

Kathy Wood arranged the celebration because the couple were devoted regulars at the café where she has worked for the past two-and-a-half years. Kathy said: "They are here every single day and they don't just have one cup of tea they have a tea, then a coffee, then another tea. They are a lovely couple and I think it is fantastic that they have been married for 60 years." She added: "Sainsbury's is very conscious of customer satisfaction and making everyone feel special and on this occasion they certainly did." Pat said living at Horsham Close, just across the road from the supermarket, made its café an ideal place to meet their friends and neighbours.

Pat said: "It is just so convenient to come here. Not everyone gets the chance to celebrate 60 years of marriage, so it is something worth celebrating."

"I think the secret is sharing everything, including the bills, and not having his and hers. "We have had a great life together, I would not change anything, only that we could still have our children with us."

The couple have had to cope with tragedy in their marriage: a daughter was born prematurely and only lived for a short time, and they lost their son

Christopher, 54, to cancer last year.

The couple met while they were both on training courses in Guildford during the war when Pat, 79, was in the ATS and Derek in the Sixth Airborne Division. They hit it off straight away, but after only three dates Derek was due to go away to Palestine, so the couple decided to marry before he left.

Pat left the forces and went back home to Leytonstone, where her father was a policeman. She later worked for 12 years in the office at West Ham United during the club's golden years from 1962 to 1974, getting to know the late Bobby Moore, Geoff Hurst and many other famous players. Derek spent 15 years in the RAF, before returning to his trade as an aircraft engineer and working on the very first Lancaster plane. He then spent 28 years in the Metropolitan Police Force, before the couple retired to Haverhill 11 years ago.

Firms prepare to do battle for top awards

COMPANIES will be battling it out for top prizes after Haverhill Chamber of Commerce launched its CB9 Business Awards for 2008.

The awards will again be run in association with the Weekly News, and will be presented at a gala ball at Chilford Hall, Linton, on Saturday, May 17.

The inaugural business awards event in May 2005 was hailed a great success, and Paul Donno, chairman of the chamber, said it was one of the best he had ever attended in the Haverhill area. He expected next year's event to be bigger and better.

Morgan Event Management, of Newmarket, will be organising the awards. Managing director Jo Morgan has already signed up five category sponsors but is looking for more backers, as well as a headline sponsor.

Mr Donno said: "These awards are a celebration of the talent, vibrancy and enthusiasm that signifies Haverhill.

"The town has really gone forward in the past three years and we also celebrate the enterprise and innovation that is so evident.

"We are also fortunate in having a pool of highly talented young people in the two upper schools who we look forward to becoming our future stars."

Clive Gillam, of St Nicholas Hospice thanked the chamber for naming it as the chosen charity for the business awards.

Up to date information on the award categories, nominations, entry forms and ball tickets can be found on the website www.cb9businessawards.co.uk or for sponsorship packages ring Jo Morgan on (01638) 666147.

EGGS and spoons were at the ready as tiny tots put their best feet forward for their annual sports day.

Around 30 under-fives at the Stepping Stones playgroup, based at Coupals Primary School in Haverhill, took part in the event's traditional races such as sprints and jumping through hoops. Coun Les Ager, Haverhill's deputy town mayor, went along to encourage them and parents also joined in the mums' and dads' races.

Elaine McManus, playgroup leader, said all the children enjoyed taking part. A few places are available at the group and anyone interested should ring Elaine on (01440) 761 018.

Concert hits high note

PUPILS from seven different schools made music together to entertain their parents and fellow students with a lively evening performance.

The Haverhill Schools Music Festival took place at Castle Manor Upper School, whose pupils were joined on the stage by others from Castle Hill Middle, Kedington, Hundon, Thurlow, St Felix and Coupsals Primary schools.

Around 200 pupils, aged seven to 18 years old, worked together all day before the evening performance, and Tony Mealings, county music service adviser, acted as host for the concert.

Ryan Lester, Castle Manor music teacher, said the festival had been revived after lapsing for several years and the £300 it was expected to raise would be ploughed back to ensure the continuation of future events.

A wide range of musical styles were performed, including exotic rhythms from the Castle Hill Samba Band, Taiko and African drumming, handbell ringing from St Felix, Any Dream will do from Kedington and Hundon pupils, and renditions of rock classics such as Great Balls of Fire and Born to be Wild by Castle Manor pupils from their forthcoming show Return to the Forbidden Planet to be staged on July 18 and 19.

Madeleine Vigar, head-teacher at Castle Manor said: "The music festival was a huge success and a tribute to the hard work of staff, children and young people from our town and villages. The music, singing and dancing was of an extremely high standard and shows just what can be achieved through team work."

Tony Mealings said: "The Suffolk County Music Service was delighted to support this event, which celebrated and showcased such a wide variety of music-making in Haverhill schools. It was good to see pupils of all ages supporting each other and enjoying each other's achievements."

Les Ager, Deputy Mayor of Haverhill, said the concert was "excellent" and added: "All items were well performed and a great credit to all the schools and their teachers."

■ BEAT GOES ON . . . pupils play authentic African drums.

Pupils bang on!

AFRICAN dance music resounded through New Cangle Primary School in Haverhill during a special workshop event. Pupils enjoyed a visit from the Iroko Theatre Company who told a story from Africa, sang songs and danced. This was followed by a drumming workshop when children played authentic African drums and a dance workshop where they learnt simple traditional African dance movements. Lyn Beale, head teacher, said the pupils thoroughly enjoyed themselves. She said: "The event was organised as part of a multi cultural week to widen children's knowledge and understanding of other cultures."

Garden event helps hospice

HAVERHILL in Bloom's first open gardens event raised more than £180 for St Nicholas Hospice.

With seven gardens on display, Haverhill in Bloom chairman Tim Radford was happy with the turnout.

He said: "Considering the weather in the week leading up to the event the people who opened their gardens deserve a medal for their hard work and dedication towards making it such an enjoyable day for viewers. Everyone commented on how pleasantly surprised they were at the variety and quality available to view."

Deputy Town Mayor Les Ager cut the ribbon to open the event and spent time visiting a few of the gardens.

Ian Norris, community fundraising manager for the hospice, said: "Open gardens events like this one in Haverhill only come about from the hard work by the organisers and garden owners."

Twice the adventure for young thespians

A THEATRE group is boldly attempting to perform two productions in four months and take them both to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Viva Youth Theatre, which consists of 16-21 year olds, had originally planned to take one production up to the fringe this year, the musical Little Shop of Horrors, but organisers contacted them in March to ask the group to bring a second show up: the play version of Willy Russell's hit West End musical, Blood Brothers. Jennie Roberts, project leader, said: "Viva primarily produces musicals, so it is a big change to be running a straight play. "There is no dancing or singing to keep the audience interested - that has to come from the quality of the acting. Little Shop of Horrors, a comedy musical about aliens, is in stark contrast to Blood Brothers, which is a heartbreaking story."

The group is performing both shows for free at Soham Village College. Blood Brothers is tonight and Saturday at 7.30pm and Little Shop of Horrors will take place tomorrow at 7.30pm and Saturday at 2.30pm. For tickets call the Viva Centre on (01353) 722 228 or email vivayouth@hotmail.com

Clooney and Co are back for a new heist

■ HE'S BACK! . . . George Clooney returns to the role of Danny Ocean for the third installment of the Ocean's franchise, this time it's Ocean's 13, on at the arts centre next week.

Rock competition, Aliceband, take to the stage again on Friday, July 20 at 8pm.

Alice Walker describes her music as alternative folk rock and lists her influences as Alanis Morissette, Bob Dylan, the Beatles and Christie Moore. The band is currently creating a stir on the local music scene. Runners-up from the competition, The Spores

- a young four-piece funk rock band from Saffron Walden who have just released their first CD - will also be playing. No unaccompanied under 14s will be allowed into the gig and proof of age may be required. ■ For more details about the shows, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714 140 or go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

Criminally smooth groovin'

SMOOTH grooves, crunching riffs and nods to blues, rap and jazz can be heard in Cambridge
courtesy of Fun Lovin' Criminals.

Fun Lovin' Criminals were formed in 1993 when notorious frontman Huey met Fast, fellow staff member of New York's famous Limelight club.
Their unique style was soon spotted by EMI, who booked them into a studio for a two-week recording session. However, the band finished all their recording inside of five days and spent the rest of the time running up a huge alcohol and food bill.

Two years later, EMI released their debut album, Come Find Yourself, which spawned
the hit singles *The Fun
Lovin' Criminal*, *King of
New York* and *Scooby
Snacks*.

Their 2001 album, Loco, shook off the band's lounge label and 2003's
Welcome To Poppy's

featured live favourites such as You Got a Problem, Got our Love and Baby.

The latest offering, Live in The City, was recorded on a 40ft yacht anchored in New York's Hudson River, and is an ode to the city in which they live and love.

They play The Junction
next Wednesday. Tickets are £18.50 and can be booked by calling (01223)

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Bravo's bravura performance

THERE'S always an element of luck involved with the launch of a new car, and Fiat's fortunes are looking decidedly perky this week following the arrival of the new Bravo.

Firstly, there's room for a lively new five-door hatchback in the market. Second, the competition is a bit tired. Dull interiors, overpricing and a lack of overall style have been the order of the day for too long. And third, this is a hugely sassy motor with across-the-board appeal. The latter isn't luck, of course – it's the result of superlative design by the Italian car firm. So, the facts. The Bravo is available now in five-door form only, with three petrol and two diesel units. Actually, it's even simpler than that. There's just two engine sizes – a 1.4-litre petrol and a 1.9-litre diesel. The 1.4 T-Jet comes in a 90bhp, 120bhp or 150bhp guise, and the 1.9 MultiJet is available in either 120bhp or 150bhp formats. Prices start at £10,995 for the 1.4 Bravo (the 90bhp model) and peak at £15,495 for the 1.9 MultiJet 150 Sport. Nice prices in anyone's book.

The line-up offers so much variety that I ended up briefly testing two totally different specs – the 1.4 T-Jet 150 Sport (pictured above) and the 1.9 MultiJet 150 Dynamic (below), both of which are available now as demonstrators at EMG on Milton Road.

The 150 Sport (£14,295) is the petrol king of the range. From the throaty roar that greets you when you turn the key to the in-your-face interior, the 150 Sport looks and handles like an urban strutaround. The fabrics are great, the seats taut, the stitching on the steering wheel, gearstick and handbrake are a buzz, and the dash layout is fun while always being fit for purpose. Headroom is good, the climate control set-up is excellent, the stereo superb, and it's smaller than a Focus and easier to park. Bravo!

■ THE FIAT BRAVO T-JET 150 SPORT... a great urban strutaround.

It also handles well on the motorway, although I worried that the brakes were a bit sluggish.

There's a Sport setting which you activate via a switch on the dash. This boosts torque levels and means you get to 60 from a standstill in 8.2 seconds rather than the conventional 8.5 seconds.

Meanwhile, the 1.9 MultiJet 150 Dynamic (£15,195) is at the other end of the spectrum: über-chic and restrained good taste are the order of the day. The 1.9 Dynamic turns out to be the perfect blend of urban and motorway, and I found it to be a far more rounded proposition. The diesel is excellent (50.4mpg, 149g/km) and the gearing seems more resolved. The brakes are tauter, and the colours and fabrics a tad gentler on the eye. There's an armrest for your left elbow, which I like (the Sport has a plastic tray). The handling is excellent and cabin noise is minimal. The Bravo is neat and poised in town and on the open road – and bear in mind the brief time I spent with the car took place this week during some very treacherous driving conditions – it handled everything thrown at it with great aplomb, making this a very welcome new arrival.

BASICALLY...

This is an elegant small family hatchback which puts the Fiat brand firmly back in a very favourable spotlight. It looks purposeful and drives superbly, placing it firmly on the first rung of one of the most competitive sectors in the car world.

Land Rover delight as Discovery 3 claims towbar of year award

■ TOP COMBINATION... Discovery 3 has power and style.

The Land Rover Discovery 3, one of the most awarded 4x4s ever, scooped yet another accolade for "Best Towcar over 1,900kgs" at this week's inaugural Practical Caravan, What Car? and the Camping & Caravanning Club Towcar awards 2007.

Judges hailed the Discovery 3's exceptional capability, saying: "The Discovery 3 will happily tow at 60mph all day, and smoothes away bumps that are felt with a thump in many other 4x4s. Nothing else in this class is as accomplished an all-rounder; it's great to drive solo, tows with gusto and is supremely practical."

Land Rover's Discovery 3 offers exceptional space, comfort and flexibility, for up to seven adults and it is able to tow up to 3.5 tonnes – enhancing its "three cars in one" status.

Land Rover's UK managing director John Edwards said: "This award is testament to the fact it is a supremely able vehicle capable of tackling anything a customer throws at it."

Priced from £27,315 on-the-road, the Discovery 3 is on sale now at Land Rover dealerships throughout the UK. Further details at www.landrover.co.uk

Japanese cars 'more reliable', concludes 'Which?' survey

EUROPEAN cars have work to do to overtake Japanese models for reliability, an owner-satisfaction survey from Which? Car magazine revealed this week.

Honda and Toyota had the most reliable cars, with the Honda Jazz supermini the highest rated new vehicle.

Land Rover was at the bottom of the reliability table, with the Land Rover Discovery 3 the least satisfactory new vehicle, the survey of almost 100,000 cars found.

While the Honda Jazz scored 96 per cent for reliability, the Land Rover Discovery got a 79 per cent rating.

Other vehicles rated highly by their owners included the BMW 3 Series, the Honda Accord, the Toyota Avensis, the Audi A6 and the Mazda MX-5.

Among the least reliable were the Citroen C4, the Peugeot 307 and the Renault Mégane.

Which? Car editor Richard Headland said: "Congratulations to Honda, which has topped the reliability table in most mainstream categories. Honda is setting the benchmark in car reliability and it's up to other manufacturers to raise their standards to match."

"Several Far Eastern car makers are hot on its heels, but European manufacturers still have some catching up to do."

These were the Which? Car 2007 best buys:

Superminis: Honda Jazz, Mazda 2, Toyota Yaris

Medium cars: BMW 1 Series, Mazda 3, VW Golf

Large cars: BMW 3 Series, Honda Accord, Lexus IS, Toyota Prius

Luxury cars: Audi A6, Jaguar XJ, Lexus GS

Mini MPVs: Nissan Note, Renault Modus

MPVs: Ford S-Max, Honda FR-V, Toyota Verso

Sports/coupes: Mazda MX-5, VW Eos

Which? Car also named three new cars "with such poor safety ratings they should be avoided" and seven used cars which it concluded were "just plain poor".

They were:

- Chevrolet Matiz (new)
- Chrysler Voyager (new)
- Dodge Caliber (new)
- Citroen Saxo (1996-2003)
- Fiat Punto (1999-2006)

■ MOST RELIABLE CAR 2007... the Honda Jazz.

- Peugeot 106 (1996-2003)
- Rover 200/25 (1995-2005)
- Citroen Xsara (1997-2004)

- Renault Mégane (1996-2003)
- Land Rover Freelander (1997-2006)

■ SAFETY WORRY... the Matiz got slated.

Mr Stewart of Burton End said, the area needing carpeting was a difficult area that would require joins in the carpet. The end result looks fantastic and the joins are invisible to the eye. I am pleased with the job and would recommend Gavin to anyone.

Gavin said, Mr Stewarts floor area was slightly more intricate than most lounges however nothing is impossible and I am happy to work with more complicated floor areas.

■ RACY LOOKS... the snazzy BMW 1 Coupe will be available in 120d, 123d and 135i guises.

59mpg BMW 1 Coupe set to hit the road this year

BMW is extending the 1 Series line-up in the UK with a new model consisting of a brace of high performance twin-turbocharged engines and a diesel capable of a frugal 58.9mpg.

The new BMW 1 Series Coupé goes on sale in the UK in November and will be available in 120d, 123d and 135i guises. The 135i marks the first time a twin-turbo petrol engine has powered a 1 Series, while the launch of the 123d heralds the introduction of the world's most powerful production four-cylinder diesel engine.

The BMW 120d Coupé will be available in ES, SE and M Sport guises, while the 123d Coupé will be offered in SE and M Sport and the 135i Coupé just as an M Sport. M Sport raises the specification bar by including 17-inch light alloy wheels on the 120d and 123d Coupé but unique 18-inch light alloy wheels on the 135i Coupé, M Aerodynamic package, M Sports suspension, Sports seats, high-gloss Shadowline exterior trim, M leather steering wheel, M designation door sills and anthracite headlining.

The introduction of a BMW 1 Series Coupé sees it join the five-door variant launched in the UK in September 2004 and the three-door launched in May this year.

The flagship of the range is the BMW 135i with its 3.0-litre twin-turbocharged petrol powerplant. Offering 306hp from its light alloy and magnesium straight-six engine, the 135i is capable of accelerating from zero to 62mph in 5.3 seconds before going on to an electronically-limited top speed of 155mph. Peak torque of 400Nm from just 1,300rpm through to 5,000rpm ensures smooth yet rapid progress and in-gear flexibility.

The BMW 135i is joined in the range by another twin-turbo-charged model to offer a unique blend of performance and economical motoring.

The 204hp four-cylinder engine in the BMW 123d Coupé sets a benchmark for small diesels. Its 1,995cc power plant is the world's first all aluminium diesel to have an output per litre figure in excess of 100hp – something only BMW M cars usually attain. It is also the first four-cylinder production diesel with twin-turbo technology.

Oliver Parsons, 1 Series product manager, said: "The new 1 Series Coupé will be a great addition to the BMW range."

"We expect it to appeal to a younger audience, but an audience that is also design conscious and looking for something unique to park outside their homes."

Prices for all three models will be announced by BMW closer to the on sale date.

Westley's efforts are all in vain

TUCKER GARDNER PARTNERSHIP
CAMBS AND HUNTS PREMIER LEAGUE

WESTON Colville skipper Adie Westley did well with the bat and ball, but his side lost by two wickets in the Division Two clash at Burghley Park. The captain bagged three wickets to peg the hosts back to 178 for 8.

Westley then made it into the 60s with the bat, but was given out lbw when he marched up the wicket to try to hit a six to tie the scores and Weston Colville were dismissed for 172.

TOM Westley just missed out on a century but did more than enough to steer Saffron Walden to a comfortable win against Wickford. Responding to 171, Walden, who started the day 10 points clear of Ardleigh Green, were given a flying start by Weston Colville-based Westley.

The 18-year-old Essex Academy batsman made 93 as the hosts eased to 172 for 3 and a seven-wicket triumph.

MUHILAN Sririvandarajah and Richard Greiller both hit half-centuries to ensure leaders St Ives did not suffer a blip at home to Horseheath in Division One. Visiting skipper Gary Ellis won the toss and saw the hosts post 230 for 6 thanks to Sririvandarajah's 74 and Greiller's knock of 63. Robert Ketteridge took three wickets for the away side. Alan Ketteridge scored 56 for Horseheath, but the performances of Mark Leach (4 for 43) and Kev Gilder (3 for 29) ensured the table-toppers dismissed their opponents for 163.

HORSEHEATH put a huge dent in Haverhill's Division One title challenge with a 14-run win in the only game to beat the wet weather. Mick Ketteridge top-scored with 33 to lead the home side to 120 for 7, while Haverhill bowler Joe Woodley did well to finish with 4 for 26. But Gary Ellis (3 for 30) and Stuart Ketteridge (3 for 23) set about picking off the visitors' batsmen, who were unable to reach the target, falling short on 106 for 7.

GOLF

IT HAS been a grim week for Haverhill in all the matches that mattered, with defeats in three county games and also a home match against Colne Valley in the Curry Cup. This was an edge-of-the-seat affair, with the advantage swinging both ways. Trailing 4-2 after the morning foursomes, Haverhill started to swing the match around during the afternoon singles with five of the first six games going their way. Debut-making Colin Bradnam added a further point, but only Kim Ward could score a further half, which left the host club needing a half from the last match to force a sudden-death play-off.

Anchor man Wayne Penman, fought hard to square the match but went down 2&1 at the 17th to Don Cutmore.

But with all the members of the Hambro and Tolly teams rested, it was still a creditable performance from Haverhill, who face Stowmarket on their home course in two weeks.

Results (Haverhill names first) - Foursomes: Thomson/Pickup v Bradley/Salmon 5&4, Pipe/Walker v Latta/Carling 2&1, Fish/Palmer 1up v Bussell/Neill, Ward/Davis v Wyatt/Howard 3&2, King/Bradnam 5&4 v Gallagher/Edwards, Penman/Kennedy v Mills/Cutmore 3&1. Singles: Thomson 1up v Neill, Pickup 1up v Bradley, Pipe 3&2 v Carling, Walker v Bussell 1up, Palmer 3&2 v Salmon, Fish 5&3 v Latta, Bradnam 4&3 v Gallagher, Davis v Edwards 5&4, Ward v Wyatt halved, King v Mills 3&2, Kennedy v Howard 5&4, Penman v Cutmore 2&1.

Haverhill scuppered in thriller

■ The Tolly Cobbold match at Felixstowe Ferry was a windswept affair with the threat of a sharp shower thrown in.

Felixstowe were four-up at lunch in the 36-hole foursomes match and, despite a spirited effort by the visitors after lunch, they maintained that margin to knock Haverhill out of the competition.

■ The Hambro match, again away at Ipswich, was lost by 20 holes.

■ The ladies' Cranworth Cup tie at Aldeburgh was always going to be difficult, and all Haverhill could muster in the foursomes was a solitary point against the home side's 13. But it was a different matter in the afternoon singles, Haverhill fighting back on what is probably Suffolk's most testing course before losing 25-20.

■ In the three other matches during the week, the seniors lost 5-3 at Fynn Valley but then won at Bourn. On the same day the men entertained Bourn at Coupals Road and drew 2-2.

■ Happiest lady member of the week was Sheila Playle, who scored a hole in one in her Match Play Shield victory against Brenda Reynolds. The ace came at the 109-yard, par-three hole where she used a five-wood off the tee.

■ Eamon Bareham hung on by a single shot to take the Cecil Darken Over-50's Trophy with a total of 135.

The competition was played over three rounds with the best two contributing to the total. Malcolm Robinson's last round of 70 left him one short of the winner.

■ The two games played at Haverhill on Sunday were the Junior Spring Cup, in which the leading three players finished with 43 stableford points apiece - Matthew Farlie winning on countback from Tom Marsh and Chris Vince - and the Douglas Bader Cup where Graham and Pat Kennedy, who had the same number of points, will represent Haverhill in the regional final.

Andy Softley and Anna Fairhead and Kevin and Heather Eldred were runners-up.

TENNIS: HAVERHILL JUNIOR OPEN

■ FANTASTIC FOURS . . . the semi-final line-ups in the boys and girls championships at the Haverhill junior open.

CP

Ross tops

ROSS Tobin clinched his first 'open' win when Haverhill Tennis Club staged their junior open championships.

The championship followed the pattern set by wet Wimbledon - the under-10s and under-12 events had to be called off a third of the way through the programme - but that did not stop Tobin in the boys' under-14s.

In the semi-finals he beat Alex Archer, who was also playing in the under-16 competition which proved to be a bigger challenge than he thought.

His final opponent proved to be Callum Slater, who had beaten Tommy Hardwick in his semi. In an outstanding match, Tobin's power and accuracy proved decisive against an opponent who was also playing in two events.

Hardwick claimed third place as Archer wanted to save his energy for the older age-group where he played Tom Lord, who had a 100 per cent record in the group games, in the final.

And, in a closely-fought game, Lord eventually triumphed in a long match which did not reach a conclusion until 7.15pm.

The under-14 girls' section did not take place as some girls were unhappy with the playing conditions, so Rachel Jeffs (12) and Ruby Hawkins (14) played in the under-16 event.

Jeffs did exceptionally well, beating Holly Hawkins and taking Abi Cartwright-Thomas to one of the three tie-breaks she battled through on her way to the final.

Ruby Hawkins recovered from an early defeat by her older sister, Holly - the pair had travelled over from Lavenham and proved a credit to their club - to fight her way into the final where her consistency was key in the victory over Cartwright-Thomas.

Lucy Hardwick did not perhaps play her best tennis on the day but, when she beat Jeffs, she qualified for the third/fourth play-off against Holly Hawkins, but as time was running out, both girls agreed to share third place.

Haverhill relief but lead is cut

HAVERHILL are still top of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship, Division Three table, despite losing at home to Ipswich by 11 runs.

Simon Youngs took 4 for 50 as the visitors closed on 173 for 8.

Neil Winter (56) gave the home side a good start, but a lacklustre middle-order display saw them finish on 162 for 9.

Skipper Rob Sullivan was disappointed, but glad his team remain in first place.

He said: "Our middle order just fell in a hole and too much pressure was applied to the later batsmen. There was some favourable results, though, so we're still top but the gap is narrowing."

Other results: Kelvedon 145 Mildenhall II 231, Lakenheath 157 for 9 Sudbury II 199 for 7 dec, Tuddenham 132 Brockley 127, Worlingworth v Dunmow cancelled.

HAVERHILL Rovers have made their third summer signing.

Centre-half Gareth Thomas signed from AFC Hornchurch on Tuesday after training with the newly-promoted Ridgeons League, Premier Division side.

Thomas follows Louis Farrington and Wayne Goddard to Hamlet Croft to offer Haverhill boss Steve Taylor more competition for places at the back.

The manager said: "Gareth has done really well in training and has looked good, so we're pleased to have him.

"All of last season's squad have signed up again now, so we're pretty much there. We just need another striker, maybe two. We have had a couple of players training and have a couple more to look at before we try to bring another one in."

Rovers have also been able to finalise their pre-season programme, which up until last week was looking a bit light.

All four games will be played at Hamlet Croft with the friendly season kicking off with the visit of Kershaw League, Premier Division champions

Defender signs, now Taylor is after a striker

Great Shelford on July 21. A week later (July 28) will see the arrival of Southern League Wivenhoe Town.

New members of the Essex Senior League, Premier Division, Mauritius Sports & Pennant, will then make the trip to Suffolk on August 4 before Haverhill face either Halstead or Bishop's Stortford in the final of the Uttlesford Charity Cup on August 7.

Taylor said: "The problem organising friendlies this summer has been that teams don't want to use their own pitch. But we've now got a good run of games against higher and lower opposition which will give us some good tests."

Admission prices for friendlies will be £2.50 for adults and £1 for concessions. Under-12s are allowed in free when accompanied by an adult.
